LONDON, May 12.

Letters of the 29th ult. N. S. from Genoa fay, that the Queen of Hungary having defir'd to borrow a confiderable Sum of Money of that Republick, the Banker she employ'd for that Purpose had actually raised Subscriptions to the Value of a Million of Florins; but that he return'd them back again; from whence it is inferr'd, that the Court of Vienna had found it easier to raise the Money elsewhere.

An Express is arriv'd from Petersburg with the Treaty betwixt Russia and creat Britain, sign'd in Form by Mr. Finch and the Czar Minters. It confirms all former Engagements betwixt the two Crowns; and three Potentates are invited to accede to it.

We are affur'd from Bruffels as well as Francfort, that on the 17th ult. a Convention was fign'd between the Queen of Hungary and the Courts of Ruffia and Saxony, by virtue of which the two latter are to fend Forces to the Queen's Affiftance; and they talk also of a Treaty concluded between her Majesty and the Courts of Ruffia and Great Britain.

The Prefents which the Court of Vienna is faid to have made to the Turkish Ambassador amount to the Value of 50000 Florins, which is more 'tis observ'd by 20000 than the Count d'Uhlefeld has receiv'd from the Porte.

They write from Hanover, that all the Officers of the Troops of that Electorate are getting their Field Equipages ready with all Expedition, his Majesty having fignify'd his Intention to review those Forces as soon as he arrives, that they may be ready for a March. They add, that several Foreign Ministers are soon expected there, to concert Measures with that Court for removing the Difficulties which retard the Election of an Emperor.

Letters from the Spanish Court at Aranjuez say that Court has resus'd to accept the Letter presented by the Great Duke of Tuscany's Minister notifying the Birth of the Archduke; and that the Northern Winds have rag'd in that Country for so long time past that the Climate is become extremely disagreeable.

The Zant, Capt. Whitwood, arrived at Lisbon from Leghorn, was chased April 16, O. S. by eight Spanish Men of War, supposed to be the Squadron that fail'd from Cadiz March 11, O. S. with some Ships for the West Indies. Two other Ships were in Company with the Zant, viz. the Mermaid, Capt. James, bound from Sicily to Lisbon; and the London Post, Russell, from Gallipoly for London; who, 'tis suppos'd, were taken by the said Squadron, which was victuall'd but for three Months, so presumed design'd to cruize about Cape St. Vincent; and Commodore Martin, in the Ipswich Man of War, with seven Sail more, was sail'd from Gibraltar in quest of them.

The Catherine, Webb, from Dublin for Lisbon, is taken and carried into St. Sebastian.

His Majesty's Ship the Dursley Galley, Capt. Hughs, of 20 Guns, has taken a Spanish Ship bound for Oran with 600 Bags of Flour, 200 Head of Cattle, and 200 Soldiers for that Garison.
